

The Pope visits Abruzzo Region

Pope Benedict XVI calls for reconstruction on behalf of the victims, who “wait from you a witness of courage and hope. They expect to see the rebirth of their land. It is on behalf of these brothers and sisters that we have to commit ourselves to living, using something that does not perish and that the earthquake could not damage: Love”.